

"THE MISCHIEF MAKERS" ARE PLUMB FULL OF IT AT OLYMPIC THEATRE

The "Mischief Makers" lived up to their name at the Olympic Theatre, on East 14th Street, last night. They will have this theatre for their home for the rest of the week. The entire company presented in two acts and four scenes, and called "The Advertising Man."

Joe Wilton, the Advertising Man, is before the footlights practically all through the show, but he finds no difficulty in making fine fun. Mabel Clark, the "Miss-a-Minute" girl, led several numbers of a "catchy" variety, and won much applause. Stella Morrissey, a statuesque prima donna, sang a patriotic number with great fervor. Others who rounded out an all-star cast were Babe Griffin, Johnny Crosby, Joe Freed, Charlie Olsen, Blanche Pearl and Buddy Kelly.

A BROADWAY TURKEY TROT.

A Healy Musical Comedy Gobbler Revolves Over Rehearsals.

When Hardick, star of the musical comedy "On the Carpet," which is a part of the Winter Ice Show in the Golden Glades, has been rehearsing a flock of turkeys preparatory to a sports Thanksgiving feature number suggested by the famous "Goose Girl."

The turkeys have been brought in from Mr. Healy's May-November Farm, Harborside, and were behaving splendidly at the end of this chain attached to the roof. All of a sudden a Roosterly gobbler threw a fighting fit. Miss Hardick released the chain in trying to pacify him, and Herr Gobbler made his exit through an open window, four stories up.

MENTAL SHOCK KILLS.

Mrs. Vetta Oshbaum of No. 1454 R. Mar's Place, who burned her husband Herman by throwing acid on him, died to-day in Bellevue Hospital from mental trouble and shock.

According to Oshbaum, a man insulted her some time ago, and it preyed on her mind. She got the acid to throw in this man, but being unable to find him, tried yesterday to persuade her husband to look him up and shoot him. Oshbaum declined to go looking for trouble and she threw the acid on him. Mrs. Oshbaum ran to the roof and fought a policeman and several others, who prevented her from jumping.

50 Gold and White Dinner Sets, $21.50

(With the best gold)—Standard $35 grade

107 pieces American porcelain sets with slender, oval covered dishes and platters, bordered with wide band and pencil stripe of the best gold and all handles gold covered. Think of it in these days for $21.50.

Yes, dinner set prices have gone up and gone up—and still going—but this is Stewart Week.

Second Gallery, New Building

In the old A. T. Stewart days dress velvet cost from $8 to $12 yard or so and was only 27 inches wide—a dress length would have cost $70 or thereabouts—tomorrow the Silk Rotunda offers

1,000 yards black velvet, 39 and 40 inches wide—at $3.85 yard

Our standard $6.50 grade

This is a fine French velvet—a rich black—and a dress length will cost less than twenty-five dollars.

Main floor, Old Building

Negligees, $4.85, $5.85

Our $7.50 and $10 grades

Negligees such as every woman wants. Not loaded down with laces but simple and gracious in line and made of excellent quality materials. Boxed for gifts if desired.

Albatross negligees, $4.85—of the best quality of all-wool albatross with hemstitched waistline and satin ribbon binding front and sleeves; white, pink, blue, lavender, copenhagen blue, rose, wistaria and wine color. All sizes. Our $7.50 grade.

Creme du chine, $5.85—light and dark shades, suitable for lounging and Pullman wear. Flowing robes caught up on either side with a cluster of deep tucks. Our $10 grade.

Third floor, Old Building

All-silk taffeta petticoats

300 at $2.65 each

Best petticoats women have ever seen at such a low price. Especially notable in the quality of the taffeta which is really unexpectedly good. Charming styles—just frilly enough to be pretty and not frilly enough to interfere with the correct swing of your skirt.

Third floor, Old Building

Bring the babies and children!

$9.75 for our $15 grades of coats for little Miss Two to Six. Mothers will be delighted with the quality and smartness of these flaring nutria trimmed broadcloth coats. Fully lined and interlined.

NEW GOLDEN SPECIALS FOR WEDNESDAY

Twelve fine new groups of women's coats, dresses and suits---$38,000 for $21,000

"Two weeks better" than the Million Dollar Sale lot—choicer groups—later fashions—scarcer materials and colors

Coats from 8 makers

Dresses from 5 makers

Suits from 4 makers

COATS as various as one could desire. Cloths extraordinarily fine. We feel we can hardly praise these coats too highly because they represent some of the best tailoring work done in New York and their styles are the later, more conservative ideas that promise to stay in fashion.

The Coats

Our $29.50 to $38.50 grades.....$19.50
Our $40 to $45 grades.....$24.50
Our $48.50 to $55 grades.....$29.50
Our $67.50 to $90 grades.....$45
Our $105 to $345 grades.....$49.50 to $150

Extra Sizes

Our $48.50 to $75 grades.....$39.50

The coats at $19.50

are of burella, bolivia and velours, partly lined with satin, excellent colors, very plain and without furs. Our $28.50 to $38.50 grades.

The coats at $24.50

are of velours, bolivia, some two-color combinations; beautifully lined; some have fur; all are very artistic. Our $40 to $45 grades.

The coats at $29.50

are of burella and satin-faced velours with natural racoon, nutria and seal-dyed muskrat collars. Our $48.50 to $55 grades.

The coats at $45

A wonderful group of many, many styles including distinguished silk velours with rich brown squirrel collars, velours coats with beaver, velours coats with dyed black racoon or opossum collars, some are adjustable and can be taken off at will. Styles adapted from the later importations. Our $67.50 to $90 grades.

Sample evening and afternoon coats at $49.50 to $150

Plenty of dark as well as brilliant colors. Rich with fox, Australian opossum and other furs. Our $105 to $345 grades.

The extra-size coats at $39.50

Sizes 40½ to 48½ in velours and burella; some plain, some with seal-dyed muskrat collar and cuffs. Black and colors. This is such an unusual offering that even sixty-five coats will not stay here very long. Our $48.50 to $75 grades.

The number of makers gives a variety of design, all good—so good that a woman would be glad of them even at full price. The furs could not be more beautiful—some are very difficult to get now. It is a most unusual collection of fashions, at prices which, to quote one woman who has seen the garments—"seem like putting money in the bank."

DRESSES not like everybody's. Dresses that keep the effect of foreign models and yet are delightfully reasonable.

The Dresses

Our $50 to $120 grades.....$25 to $60
Our $32.50 to $45 grades.....$22.50
Our $27.50 to $35 grades.....$18.75

The dresses at $25 to $30

are the best adaptations of Paris models we recall at the prices. Samples. Only one or two of a kind. Exquisite crepe Georgette, sturdy serge, rich chiffon velvet and satin. Both afternoon and evening dresses and some especially desirable for restaurant and theatre wear. Our $50 to $120 grades.

The dresses at $22.50

include beautiful models in all black as well as black and colored. Some of serge and velveteen. One velveteen dress has an adjustable bustle that can be formed into a tunic by undoing a snap or two.

The dresses at $18.75

Plain and serge, utility dresses—very pretty ones. Our $27.50 to $35 grades.

The Suits

Were $29.50.....now $15
Were $32.50.....now $19.50
Were $42.50.....now $29.50

Our own suits at newly reduced prices. Mostly broadcloth, plain or with velvet trimming and at $29.50 with fur. Black and blue mostly.

To begin the day there are practically all sizes in some or every style at each price—except when otherwise specified

NEW GOLDEN SPECIALS—DOWN-STAIRS STORE

687 New Dresses for Women at $7.50, $10.50, $14.75 & $19.75

For the woman who wants a dress of silk, serge or velveteen which is in absolute good style, at considerably less than she would expect to pay even now, this is her opportunity. Every dress is new and will be placed on sale tomorrow in the Down-Stairs Store for the first time at these prices. Everyone was specially purchased for the Stewart Week Sale.

Women's silk dresses, $7.50

Six models—exact duplicates of dresses we have sold earlier for $12.75 to $18.50. Striped satin, plain satin—some with Georgette crepe sleeves; one with surplus effect bodice, another with embroidered jacket.

Women's serge dresses, $14.75

Some of the styles we have had here earlier for $18.50 to $22.50. One model is effectively trimmed with soutache braid, others with pleated skirts.

Velveteen Dresses at $16.50

A very low price for good looking velveteen dresses. One model with draped skirt, another with tinsel embroidered bodice.

Women's serge dresses, $10.50

All less than regularly; excellent serge, mostly with white satin collars, some with box pleated skirts, some trimmed with braid, one dress with embroidered jacket-effect bodice. One model of covert cloth with surplus bodice.

Women's dresses at $19.75

Serge, velveteen and corduroy dresses—duplicates in many instances of dresses we have sold for $27.50. One serge dress is trimmed with soutache braid; another with bead embroidery; velveteen and satin are combined in another; a very attractive high-neck model in corduroy and checked velveteen.

Down-Stairs Store, Old Bldg., Fourth Ave. front

Women's Coats, new low price, $18.50

A very unusual purchase—for they are the kind of coats we have sold earlier at $24.75. Twenty-five models—a few coats of this style and a few of that. Kersey cloth, wool, velours, pebble cheviot. Plain or fur collars.

New coats at $24.75

Broadcloth, burella and wool velours—excellent quality for every coat is much less than our regular prices. Some with cape collars and cuffs trimmed with wide bands of fur. All fully lined with satin and interlined.

Down-Stairs Store, Old Building—Fourth Avenue front

2,100 pairs women's fancy high-cut shoes at $4.25

When present market conditions make it impossible for us to even duplicate these shoes again at their regular prices, it is all the more remarkable to get them tomorrow at the special Stewart Sale price of $4.25. Five models—

All dull calf with military heels and wing tips
Black kidskin with fawn cloth tops and Louis heels
Gray kidskin with gray cloth tops and Louis heels
Black kidskin with gray kid tops and Louis heels
Black kidskin with white kid tops and Louis heels

All have fashionable high-cut tips.
